

Convention: every arrow(ping and ack arrows) have the same layout aspect for practical purposes (see game access sequence diagram).

The player draws the leader card. Every time a player has it's own turn, he can decide wether to use card's ability or not(for example choosing to use the "collect extra resources from market" ability is not always good idea if a warehouse is almost full!!!!). Eventually the game will be over.